Congratulations! You have successfully confirmed your information on the voters list. If the system did not find you, follow the steps in the next section.

System did NOT find you

To find your existing record, an exact match with the information in our database is required. If you have previously been registered to vote but the system cannot find you, click the Change or Previous button to go back and revise your information.

- Try searching using a variation of your name, such as a nickname, or a previous version of your name.
- Try searching under an old address.
- Try searching using a previous address or name if your information has changed since the last election.
- Try different ways of searching under your current address – add or remove a unit number, search by municipality instead of postal code, or search under an alternative road name (e.g. County Road 43 instead of Banwell Road).

If there is no existing record, please follow the steps below to add your information.

How to maintain your information on the voters list

- 1 If your information was not found in our system, click the Submit button. On the Add me to the voters list – Verification page, review and update your personal information, then click the Next button.
- 2 On the Add me to the voters list – ID/Documentation page, enter your Ontario driver's license number or Ontario photo card number or upload a PDF or image file of an ID/documentation that meets the requirements described, then click the Next button.
- 3 On the Add me to the voters list – Additional properties page, select “Yes” or “No” and provide any additional information if required.
- 4 On the Add me to the voters list – Contact info page, enter your contact information so that Elections Ontario can contact you about your request to maintain your information on the voters list, then click the Next button. If you provide your email address, you will automatically receive an email with your Voter Registration reference number.
- 5 On the Add me to the voters list – Confirmation page, confirm that the information displayed in the Personal information section is correct. Click the Previous button to go back and change any of the information displayed, if incorrect.
- 6 Select “Yes” or “No” to share your information with Elections Canada, MPAC, your municipality and its local boards. If you select “No”, please note that you may miss out on important electoral information about federal and municipal, DSSAB and school board elections.
- 7 Read the Declaration and click the box to certify that you agree with the statement, then click the Submit button.
- 8 Print the confirmation page, which includes the reference number you will need to check the status of your request.

How to maintain your information on the voters list

To maintain your information for municipal, DSSAB and school board elections for a property other than your home address:

The screenshot shows a web interface for maintaining voter information. At the top, a question asks: "Are you checking, updating, adding or removing your personal information and/or property from the voters list?". Below this are four buttons: "Check" (with a checkmark icon), "Update" (with a refresh icon), "Add" (with a plus icon and highlighted with a yellow border), and "Remove" (with a minus icon). Below these buttons are two larger sections. The left section is titled "Add your name and/or home address" and contains a plus icon and a yellow "Add" button. The right section is titled "Add or search a property other than your home address" and contains a magnifying glass icon and a yellow "Add or Search" button. A yellow bracket connects the "Add" button in the top row to the "Add or Search" button in the bottom right section.

- 1 Click the Add or Search button under Add or search a property other than your home address.
- 2 Read the Important information page, then click the Next button.
- 3 Under Citizenship, select "Yes" or "No" to indicate your citizenship status.
